FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAMDEN INTRODUCES ITS CX-DE1200 SERIES OF DELAYED EGRESS MAGNETIC LOCKS

August, 2022 . . . Mississauga, Ontario

Camden Door Controls is pleased to announce the market release of CX-DE1200 Series Exit Watch™ delayed egress maglocks. The series includes a range of single door (CX-DE1200) and double door (CX-DE1220) models.

Exit Watch™ delayed egress maglocks are UL listed and available in a range of models to meet NFPA, BOCA and local AHJ requirements. They also feature heavy-duty construction, 1,200 lbs. holding force, and the option for voice or sounder annunciation, with an LED visual count-down timer.

Delayed egress magnetic locks are supported with a range of mounting accessories, including filler plates and brackets. The CX-DE1200 Exit Watch™ maglocks are also supported with a range of system accessories, including sounders, speakers, remote key switches, and instructional signs.

For more information, these products are included in Camden's 2022 Catalog/Price List as well as on our website: www.camdencontrols.com.
